

Technion
Israel Institute of Technology

The Board of Governors of the Technion, Israel Institute of Technology, by virtue of the authority granted to it by the Constitution of the Institute, in accordance with the decision made by the Council on the fifth day of Tevet, five thousand seven hundred and seventy,
the twenty-second day of December, two thousand and nine,
and with the approval of the Senate, hereby confers upon

Prof. Anders Lindquist

the degree of

Doctor Scientiarum Honoris Causa

In recognition of your standing as a world leader in Mathematical Systems Theory and your fundamental and innovative contributions to the mathematical theory of systems, control and signal processing; in tribute to your outstanding leadership in the scientific community; and in gratitude for your friendship and support of the Technion and of Israel.

Given in Haifa on the second day of Tamuz five thousand seven hundred and seventy,
the fourteenth day of June two thousand and ten, in the sixty-third year of the Independence of the State of Israel.

Three handwritten signatures in black ink, each followed by a printed title. The first signature is for the President, the second for the Chairman of the Board, and the third for the Chairman of the Council.
President Chairman of the Board Chairman of the Council