

M. Feldman

Transonic shocks and free boundary problems.

Abstract: We study the existence and stability of multidimensional transonic shocks (hyperbolic-elliptic shocks) for the Euler equations for steady potential fluids. The method is to reduce the problem to a one-phase free boundary problem for a nonlinear elliptic equation. Joint work with G.-Q. Chen.